EPIPHANY  GROUP
rooted in the Ignatian tradition

WWW.EPIPHANYGROUP.ORG.UK

EPIPHANY GROUP SCOTLAND is a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO) regulated by the Scottish Charity Regulator (OSCR), Scottish Charity number: SC055036

The COURSE

This course aims to help participants develop and deepen their experience of prayer and live more reflectively. It offers opportunities to explore faith, discover meaning and come to a deeper, closer relationship with God. In doing so, it provides space to examine hopes and desires and to move towards the fullness of life we long for in ourselves, in those around us and in the global community to which we all belong.

COURSE CONTENT

Participants are offered opportunities to:

- Experience different ways of praying taken from Ignatian and other spiritual traditions. These include coming to stillness, silent waiting, praying with scripture, imaginative contemplation and prayer of review.
- Explore aids to prayer and reflection including journaling, artwork, body awareness, music and use of images.
- Develop and deepen awareness of different perceptions of God and self.
- Discover a way of making prayerful choices in tune with God's hopes and desires for the world.

Develop and deepen your experience of prayer and live more reflectively

METHOD

The course is primarily experience-based and reflective. Sessions include input, space for prayer, guided prayer and reflection and small group sharing. In addition to the weekly group meetings participants are offered the opportunity of one-to-one spiritual accompaniment.

WHO IS THE COURSE FOR?

The course is open to those of any denomination and none. No particular experience of prayer is required, only a desire for God. Participants should be prepared to share some of their experience of prayer with others. The participatory nature of the course means it is important that there is a commitment to attend regularly.

THE COURSE TEAM

The tutors are members of the Epiphany Group – an ecumenical group of women and men working across Scotland committed to ministries arising from the Spiritual Exercises of Ignatius of Loyola.

Growth in Prayer and Reflective Living is complete in itself. As well as going on to serve in the wider world/church some participants may choose to continue on to the courses in Spiritual Conversation and then Spiritual Direction.
